Applying for Admission

Wytheville Community College welcomes new students. Anyone who is 18 or older or who has obtained a high school diploma or the equivalent may be admitted to the College. Special consideration is given to others on a case-by-case basis. The staff of the WCC Admissions Office is available to assist students in completing an application and submitting the information needed to determine student eligibility.

New Students

If you have never attended Wytheville Community College, please complete an official application:
